Creative design, captivating views and inspiring gardens deliver an uplifting sense of harmony in this private haven in a phenomenal location and sought-after cul-de-sac. Conceived as a luxurious family entertainer, the freestanding home integrates with the natural beauty of its surrounds with panoramic views over Northbridge that transform into a magical backdrop by night. An adaptable layout suited to a family's changing needs features a choice of living areas and a versatile home office while the lush gardens are complete with a saltwater pool, entertainer's cabana and even a putting green. It's a short walk to Middle Harbour Public School and Lodge Road Park with only one set of lights to the city.
